Magically Organized is joining forces with Parenting Made Easier owner, Joan Romeo, to offer a great seminar on how to get your family organized and how to keep everyone on board! Being held at "Your Center" in Cherry Hill, NJ. Call or email me to register. $30 in advance/$35 at the door.

Spring Into Action!

The warm weather is here and you can't wait to start having barbecues, inviting friends over for horseshoes & swimming, spending the day out in the yard with the kids playing ball, you name it! Then reality strikes! The yard is a mess.

It's OK, as long as you are organized, you will have a ship-shape yard in no time. Just grab a pen and paper and make some notes. Your list might look something like this...

Yard chores for summer fun:

1. Weed the flower beds.
2. Remove broken branches and twigs from the lawn and flower beds.
3. Trim and cut the grass.
4. Cut back overgrown plants.
5. Rake and remove any leftover leaves.
6. Put down fertilizer.
7. Till the vegetable garden.
8. Plant the vegetables.
9. Top off the mulch in the flower beds.
10. Sweep the step and porch/patio.
11. Wipe down the outdoor furniture.
12. Remove the pool cover and get it ready for swimming.

Once your list is complete, enlist the family. Give each family member an age-appropriate job. Or better yet, let them feel empowered and let them choose which job they'd like to do. Pick an afternoon and start working on that list. In as little as one weekend or even one afternoon, depending on the size of your yard, you can have it all accomplished.

Finally, check your calendar for open dates and let the parties and outdoor gatherings begin. It can be something as simple as having friends over to swim or having a neighborhood block party. It doesn't matter which one you choose because your yard will be ready.

Finally, make one more list...

Things to do over the summer:

1. Relax.
2. Relax.
3. Relax.
4. And, of yeah, have fun!
