

- 🌸 Relying on others is not a weakness. It shows strength to acknowledge you need help and will ask for it. No one is success alone. There are always people in the background that support them in their success.
- 🌸 If you keep finding yourself running late, try laying out your clothes the night before. If you have smaller children, do the same for them. It will save you valuable time having the decision already made.
- 🌸 Be prepared for tomorrow. It is a day of celebration! We are, no matter how much people complain, living in THE BEST country in the world. God Bless America!
- 🌸 Happy birthday America! Land of the free and home of the brave!
- 🌸 Just before midnight...see even the professional organizers can forget stuff. 😊
Believe in yourself, you can do it!
- 🌸 Is your utensil drawer(s) driving you nuts? Take 15 minutes today and clear it out. Take everything out, wipe out the drawer, sort the items by type, delete any necessary duplicates and refill the drawer. Be sure to keep in mind that you want the drawer to be functional and not stuffed.
- 🌸 Do not assume that your perspective is the same as those around you. Your life experiences may be very different from those you're interacting with and the same goes for them.
- 🌸 Would you rather clear out a basement, garage or attic? Why?
- 🌸 Allowing yourself to relax while on vacation can be difficult with smart phones as part of our daily lives. Be sure to not get lost in your Facebook feed when you could be enjoying the people and things right in front of you.
- 🌸 When the SH*T is about to hit the fan, stop the fan. If it's too late, grab some cleaner. In other words, there are some things in your control and some are not, but both can be handled. Sometimes it's just a bit messier than you would like.
- 🌸 Take 15 minutes to clear out a coat closet today and send them off to donation. It's easier to purge heavy coats when the weather is warm. And, someone else will have it in time for the cold weather.
- 🌸 If you have a day that is particularly stressful, make sure you take care of yourself. Try to make the next day a bit lighter if at all possible.
- 🌸 For most college bound kids, they only have about 1 month until school starts. If your child is headed off to college, start planning out your to-do's now. Do a few of the to-do's per week so as not to be running around like crazy the week before school starts.

- 🌸 Paper can quickly turn into a monster. If you are behind in your paperwork, take 15 minutes each day to work on the backlog until you're caught up and an additional 5 minutes to address the new papers coming in each day.
- 🌸 This week, every time you get an email from a company that you no longer wish to do business with, unsubscribe yourself. Over the long haul, it will dramatically cut down on the emails you receive.
- 🌸 Even people can be defined as clutter as sad as that sounds. If you have people around you that only bring negativity and bring you down, I would qualify them as clutter. You may not be able to "trash" them from your life, but you can "donate" them and clear them from your calendar and bring in people who make you happy and lift you up.
- 🌸 If you continually feel like you are losing your weeks and things aren't getting done, keep a log of how you spend your time. It may surprise you how much time is wasted on social media and stuck in traffic. Or there may be other things that pop up as time wasters. Either way, you will be able to see clearly how your time is spent and if you want to make any changes.

- 🌸 When the wind blows your umbrella inside out, dance in the rain.
- 🌸 Early birds have already caught the worm. What will the night owls do tonight? Productivity can be at extreme ends of the 24-hour spectrum. I prefer mornings. What do you prefer?
