

Kathleen Edelstein
Owner
Magically Organized, LLC

Kathleen Edelstein worked in corporate America for over 12 years in the Marketing and Communications field. A large portion of her responsibilities included special events planning for highly visible functions and outings such as NASCAR's Daytona 500, a presentation by the then Governor of New Jersey, Christie Todd Whitman at PHH Mortgage Services and multiple functions for Corporate Executives and their guests.

Kathleen has since taken all of her corporate organizing experience and in 2009 began her own professional residential organizing service, Magically Organized, LLC. Magically Organized is in business to help make lives easier by helping people to eliminate the clutter and chaos in their lives. Kathleen has been featured in the Courier-Post and is a member of the Gloucester County Chamber of Commerce and the Gloucester County Network Connections group.

Kathleen is a Golden Circle member of the National Association of Professional Organizers and earned her Certified Professional Organizer® designation in 2016. She graduated with honors from LaSalle University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.
